Numb. 6567

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 27 to Tuesday August 30. 1726.

Stockholm, August 10.

THE Court has been ſome time at Carlberg, and it is believed will continue at that Palace as long as the good Weather laſts. On the 4th Inſtant the King of Sweden went to take the Diverſion of Hunting on an Iſland in this Neighbourhood called Warmboen, from whence his Majeſty returned on Sunday the 7th to Carlberg. The next Day his Majeſty deſigned to be preſent in the Senate, but was in the Morning ſo much indiſpoſed that he was obliged to keep his Bed moſt of the Day; but his Majeſty was Yeſterday ſo well again, that he accompanied the Queen to the Palace of Drotningholm, where their Majeſties dined, and returned in the Evening to Carlberg. In the Night between the 3d and 4th of this Month, died at his Houſe in this Town, after a long Indiſpoſition, the Field-Marſhal and Senator Count Erick Sparre; and on Sunday his Corpſe was depoſited in the Church of the Gray Fryars here, in order to be conveyed to the burying Place of his Anceſtors at his Seat called Sundby. The Swediſh Envoy at Petersbourg having lately given an Account that the Czarina deſigned to ſend the Duke of Holſtein's Firſt Miniſter M. Baſſewitz as her Ambaſſadour to this Court againſt the Meeting of the next Dyet, and the better to qualify him for that Poſt, had made him one of her Privy Council, the Senate thereupon took that Matter ſome Days ago into Deliberation, and paſſed a Reſolution, that whereas the ſaid Privy-Councellour had on divers Occaſions ſpoke with great Contempt both of the King and the whole Swediſh Nation, they could not therefore admit him under any Character to come and reſide in this Kingdom; which Reſolution has not only ſince been notified both to the Muſcovite and Holſtein Miniſters here, but the Swediſh Envoy at Petersbourg is alſo ordered to acquaint the Ruſſian Court therewith.

From on Board His Majeſty's Ship the Union off the Groyne, Aug. 10. Sir John Jennings, with the Squadron of His Majeſty's Ships under his Command, took his Departure from the Lizard the 25th of laſt Month, and on the 30th fell in with Cape Pinas. Before he came the Length of St. Andero, with which he ſtood in as near as he judged convenient the 1ſt Inſtant, he detached the Lord Forbes in the Canterbury, with the Cruizer Sloop, to put an Officer aſhore with a Letter to the Commander in Chief there, and bring him off again. In the mean Time Sir John Jennings with the reſt of the Squadron made for the Bay of St. Antonio, where the Lord Forbes joyned